Raising the pay of Mr. K. Sri Vijayapaliah, press probationer

General and Revenue Secretariat — P&S File No. 14 of 1938. — [App. F. III-2

Serial No.
1	From the Supdt., Govt. Printing No. P 325 Dr 21-7-38 Recommends that the pay of Mr. K. Sri Vijayapaliah, press probationer may be raised from Rs 60/- to Rs 80/- p.m. 1) In the G.O. dated 12-2-36 (P&S 45-35-3) the appointment of two press probationers was sanctioned; their pay was fixed at Rs 50/- p.m. in the first year, Rs 60/- p.m. in the second year and Rs 75/- p.m. thereafter till they are absorbed. Mr. Vijayapaliah, the first of the two Press Probationers is now drawing Rs 60/- as he is in the second year of his probation. On the analogy of the raising of the pay of the Marketing probationers (vide G.O. 65-37-4) Mr. Vijayapaliah requests that his pay may be raised to Rs 80/- with retrospective effect. The Supdt. recommends that his pay may be raised from 3-12-37 i.e. the date on which he completed one year's probation.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Development Department, BANGALORE.

SIR,

I beg to submit herewith for favourable consideration of Government the application received from Mr.K. Sri Vijayapaliah, Press Probationer, praying, under the circumstances represented by him in his petition, that his pay may be enhanced to Rs.80/- and to state ~~that~~ as follows:-

Mr.K. Sri Vijayapaliah was appointed as a Probationer in the Government Press on ~~3rd~~ 31st December 1936, as per Government Order No.G.3726-9/P.&.S.45-35-11, dated the 18th November 1936, and is now drawing Rs.60/- against the scale Rs.50/- in the first year, Rs.60/- in the second year and Rs.75/- thereafter till he is absorbed as sanctioned in Government Order No.G.6331-4/P.&.S.45-35-3, dated 12th February 1936. It has also been stated in the above Government Order that to minimise the additional cost, the probationer should be made to do actual work after sometime and thus enable an appointment on lower pay or wages being kept vacant.

Government were pleased to direct in their order No.D.2707-8/I.&.C.65-37-4, dated 29th September 1937, that the pay of the Marketing Probationers for the Department of Industries and Commerce be raised from Rs.60/- to Rs.80/- after a probationery period of one year on the report of work done by the two probationers, made by the Director of Industries and Commerce.

In view of the above facts, and that the Probationers in in the Revenue and other Departments are also started on Rs.80/-, I beg to recommend that the pay of Mr. Sri Vijayapaliah, Probationer, attached to this office, who has made good progress during his training for about a year and a half and who has passed the Departmental Examinations, viz., Proof-Reading and Composing, may also be raised to Rs.80/- with effect from 3rd December 1937, on which date he completed one year's probation, so as to bring him on a line with the Probationers of the other Departments.

If the above proposal commends itself to Government, the additional cost will be met out of the savings under "Establishment" of this office.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant.

To

The Superintendent,

Sir,

I beg to state that Probationers in almost all Departments, have been started on a pay of Rs.80/- per mensem. The Probationers who have been recently recruited to the Revenue, Accounts and Co-operative Departments, as also to the Mines, Geology and Medical Departments have all been given a pay of Rs.80/- per mensem. The pay of the present Probationers in the Department of Industries and Commerce, which formerly stood at Rs.60/- per mensem has also been raised to the same level, viz., to Rs.80/- per mensem. (vide G.O. No.D.2707-8/I.&.C.65-37-4, dated 29th September 1937). The work obtaining in the Department of Printing is no less, if not more, onerous, responsible and taxing.

I may also be permitted to state that I have passed every one of my examinations, including my B.Sc.(Hons.) Degree Examination, in First Class. I was a recipient of a prize in an Essay-prize Competition, besides having been the subject scholar in my Major subject during the Degree course.

I beg, therefore, that a strong recommendation to Government may kindly be made for the enhancement, with retrospective effect, of my pay to Rs.80/- per mensem, so as to bring it to a level with the pay of the probationers in other Departments.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
K. Sreevijayaphaliah.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.G.1474/P. & S.14-38-2, dated the 15th August 1938, requesting to be furnished with information as to the salaries that Mr. D.S. Gurubasavappa drew as a Probationer in the different years till he was confirmed, I have the honour to state that Mr. Gurubasavappa was appointed as Press Probationer with effect from 14th June 1928 as sanctioned in Government Order No.G.11844-5/P. & S.26-27-5, dated 23rd April 1928. The terms on which he was appointed were that he should draw Rs.50/- per mensem in the first year, Rs.60/- per mensem in the 2nd year and Rs.75/- per mensem thereafter till he was absorbed in any of the vacancies in the Press Department as laid down in Government Order No.G.7032-5/P. & S.26-27-2, dated 23rd December 1927. Accordingly he drew Rs.50/- per mensem for one year, on the completion of which he was promoted to Rs.60/- with effect from 14th June 1929. He drew this pay till the end of August 1929 after which period he was allowed to draw the maximum pay of Rs.75/- with effect from 1st September 1929 when he was deputed for training at the Government Press, Madras, as sanctioned in Government Orders Nos.1977-8/P & S.90-28-5, dated 10th August 1929 and Government Order No.G.3128-9/P & S.8-29-6, dated 12th September 1929. In view of the high expense which the scholar had to incur at Madras, Government were pleased to sanction a deputation allowance of Rs.25/- per mensem to him with effect from 1st July 1930. In the meanwhile Mr.Gurubasavappa was absorbed in the Press Establishment as General Foreman in grade Rs.75-5-100 with with effect from 1st July 1930 in the reorganisation of the permament Establishment, which was sanctioned in that year, in Government Order No.G.4059-60/P. & S.22-30-10, dated 16-10-1930. The period of deputation, which was sanctioned for a period of two years in the first instance, in the Government Order dated 10th August 1929, referred to above was further extended by a period of six months in Government Order No.G.1605-6/P. & S.14-31-2, dated 20th August 1931 to enable the scholar to complete the full course of training and pass the Technological Examinations. At the end of this period he rejoined duty in this office on 2nd May 1932, when he reverted to his grade pay of General Foreman. He earned the usual annual increments in the grade and was also given an advance increment, raising his pay to Rs.90/- with effect from 1st July 1932 in Government Order No.G.1247-8/P & S.10-32-2, dated 19th August 1932. He was appointed as Acting Sub-Assistant Superintendent on Rs.125/- in grade Rs.125-10-175 with effect from 14-5-1934 and confirmed with effect from 1-10-1934 in Government Notification No. G.5650/P. & S.32-34-2, dated 6th December 1934, in the arrangements made in the vacancy caused by the retirement of Mr. B. Puttaiya, the late superintendent.
